

ALTICE USA AND THE RIM COUNTRY REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCE THE 2017 TEACHERS' SUPPLY DRIVE

Community-Wide Drive in Payson, Arizona Will Provide K-12 Teachers with Much-Needed Classroom Supplies in Time for Back to School

July 26, 2017 – Altice USA, one of the largest broadband communications and video services providers in the United States offering Suddenlink-branded products and services in the Payson area, is partnering with the Rim Country Regional Chamber of Commerce on the 2017 Altice USA / Suddenlink Teachers' Supply Drive in Payson, AZ.

Altice USA employees will volunteer to help collect and sort supplies as well as help raise awareness in Payson with televised public service announcements and communications in the area.

The Payson community is encouraged to support the teachers at their local schools by making a donation during this year's Altice USA / Suddenlink Teachers' Supply Drive (see details below). The supplies collected during the Drive will be distributed among K-12 schools and will go toward helping teachers' efforts to positively impact the lives of children.
