

LOCAL STUDENT EMILY AKERS EARNS SUDDENLINK SCHOLARSHIP

BECKLEY, W. Va. (Aug. 3, 2016) – Altice USA, the fourth largest cable operator in the United States, which recently acquired Suddenlink, announced winners of the company’s annual Douglas Faust Memorial Scholarships. Among the six 2016 recipients is Emily Akers of Beckley. Emily is a graduate of Shady Spring High School in Shady Spring and currently attends West Virginia University, where she is studying psychology and history.

Akers is the daughter of Suddenlink Headend Technician Darrell Akers, Beckley.

The scholarship program honors the memory of Douglas Faust, who led Suddenlink’s early accounting efforts. This year’s winners each received $1,500 awards toward tuition.
