

LOCAL STUDENT MAXIMILIAN UPP EARNS SUDDENLINK SCHOLARSHIP

LUBBOCK, Texas (Aug. 3, 2016) – Altice USA, the fourth largest cable operator in the United States, which recently acquired Suddenlink, announced winners of the company’s annual Douglas Faust Memorial Scholarships. Among the six 2016 recipients is Maximilian Upp of Lubbock. Maximilian is a graduate of Trinity Christian High School in Lubbock and is attending Texas Tech University, where he is studying communications and marketing.

Upp is the son of Suddenlink Sales Engineer Tim Upp, Lubbock.

The scholarship program honors the memory of Douglas Faust, who led Suddenlink’s early accounting efforts. This year’s winners each received $1,500 awards toward tuition.
