

LOCAL STUDENT NICOLE SPOELMAN EARNS SUDDENLINK SCHOLARSHIP

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (Aug. 3, 2016) – Altice USA, the fourth largest cable operator in the United States, which recently acquired Suddenlink, announced winners of the company’s annual Douglas Faust Memorial Scholarships. Among the six 2016 recipients is Nicole Spoelman of Flagstaff. Nicole is a graduate of Flagstaff High School and will be attending Northern Arizona University, where she will study finance.

Spoelman is the daughter of Suddenlink Vice President of Operations Dan Spoelman, Flagstaff.

The scholarship program honors the memory of Douglas Faust, who led Suddenlink’s early accounting efforts. This year’s winners each received $1,500 awards toward tuition.
