

LOCAL STUDENT PHAREZ KING EARNS SUDDENLINK SCHOLARSHIP

GREENVILLE, Miss. (Aug. 3, 2016) – Altice USA, the fourth largest cable operator in the United States, which recently acquired Suddenlink, announced winners of the company’s annual Douglas Faust Memorial Scholarships. Among the six 2016 recipients is Pharez King of Greenville. Pharez is a graduate of King’s Court Christian Academy in Greenville and currently attends Jackson State University, where he is studying business administration.

King is the son of Suddenlink General Manager George King, Greenville.

The scholarship program honors the memory of Douglas Faust, who led Suddenlink’s early accounting efforts. This year’s winners each received $1,500 awards toward tuition.
