

LOCAL STUDENT TYLER FAUST EARNS SUDDENLINK SCHOLARSHIP

NACOGDOCHES, Texas (Aug. 3, 2016) – Altice USA, the fourth largest cable operator in the United States, which recently acquired Suddenlink, announced winners of the company’s annual Douglas Faust Memorial Scholarships. Among the six 2016 recipients is Tyler Faust of Nacogdoches. Tyler is a graduate of Cabot (Ark.) High School and currently attends Stephen F. Austin State University, where he is studying political science.

Faust is the son of Suddenlink Director of Operations Kenny Faust, Nacogdoches, and is not related to Doug Faust.

The scholarship program honors the memory of Douglas Faust, who led Suddenlink’s early accounting efforts. This year’s winners each received $1,500 awards toward tuition.
